OTB and the other Released Parties do not guarantee your safety at any time, and shall have no responsibility or liability for your safety in any port of call. You may find information about the scheduled ports of call through the U.S. Department of State, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and other governmental and tourist organizations. OTB and the other Released Parties assume no responsibility for gathering and/or disseminating any such information. You acknowledge that severe weather conditions or other factors beyond the control of Cruise To The Edge, OTB Cruises, LLC. and/or ROYAL CARIBBEAN may prohibit the ship from docking at scheduled ports of call. Guests under the age of 21 must be traveling with a parent or responsible adult AND must be booked in the same stateroom or a connecting cabin.

Guests under the age of 21, traveling with a guardian 21 years or older, (who is not a parent, grandparent or court-appointed legal guardian), MUST bring an original signed letter from the absent parent/legal guardian authorizing the minor to travel with the appointed guardian. PASSPORT & LEGAL DOCUMENT REQUIREMENTS

We strongly encourage guests to visit the Department of Homeland Security website (<http://www.dhs.gov>) or the Foreign Affairs & International Trade Canada website (<http://www.voyage.gc.ca>) for the most up-to-date traveler information including passport and visa requirements as well as travel advisories and safety recommendations.

Please Note: Guests who fail to have the required documents as determined by U.S. Customs & Immigration will be denied boarding and such guests shall not be entitled to any refund nor shall Cruise To The Edge, OTB Cruises, LLC Royal Caribbean have any further liability to such guests.

Although a passport is not required for U.S. citizens taking "closed loop" cruises, we strongly recommend that all guests travel with a passport (valid for at least six months beyond completion of travel). Having a passport will enable guests to fly from the U.S. to a foreign port in the event they miss their scheduled embarkation, or to fly back to the U.S. if they need to disembark the ship mid-cruise due to an emergency.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR U.S. GUESTS ONLY

Please also note that as of January 22, 2018 not all driver's licenses or state IDs may be used as a form of ID when flying. For more information on REAL ID and Air Travel, click HERE.

U.S. CITIZENS

The Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative (WHTI) Passport Requirements became effective June 1, 2009, for land and sea borders. While the WHTI requires a valid passport for land and sea travel, a final ruling was issued allowing leniency for "closed-loop" cruises, i.e., sailings that both originate and terminate in the same U.S. port.

For both security and immigration purposes, each guest is responsible for bringing all necessary travel documents and identification required for the cruise itinerary. Only a valid passport (please note exception for closed loop sailings) or other WHTI compliant document will be accepted for entry or re-entry into the United States.

U.S. citizens taking "closed-loop" cruises are not required to have a passport. However, guests who will be traveling without a passport will need proof of citizenship such as one of the following:

1. Passport – RECOMMENDED - U.S. Passport must be valid through the dates of travel of the cruise as well as not expired.
2. Passport Card – A valid unexpired U.S. Passport Card can be used to enter the United States from Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Bermuda at land border crossings or sea ports-of-entry and is more convenient and less expensive than a passport book. The passport card cannot be used for international travel by air.
3. Original or Certified copy of a GOVERNMENT Issued Birth Certificate with a raised seal or in some cases a holographic image. Neither a notarized copy of a birth certificate NOR a Live Hospital Birth Certificate will be accepted by CBP. Please also keep in mind that if you are traveling using a birth certificate and you have had a name change (i.e.: marriage), you will need to provide proof of that name change (i.e.: marriage license).
4. Consular report of Birth Abroad - Notarized copies are not acceptable. We highly recommend that if at all possible, guests travel with a Passport.
5. Certificate of Naturalization - Notarized copies are not acceptable. We highly recommend that if at all possible, guests travel with a Passport.

6. Enhanced Driver's license (EDL) - There are currently only four (4) U.S. States and four (4) Canadian Provinces producing EDL's.

- U.S.: Michigan, New York, Vermont, and Washington
- Canada: British Columbia, Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec

In addition to proof of citizenship, guests will be required to present a valid government-issued photo ID, such as a driver's license. Children are also required to bring proof of citizenship, and if 16 and over, a photo ID is also required.

ONLY US Citizens can sail using a valid Proof of Citizenship (see above) along with a government issued photo ID. Canadian and Bermudian citizens are required to have a passport for air, land and sea travel.

Birth certificates from Puerto Rico issued prior to July 1, 2010 are not valid forms of proof of citizenship accepted by U.S. Customs and Border Protection. Guests from Puerto Rico either need to present a WHTI-compliant document or government-issued photo identification with a validated birth certificate issued after July 1, 2010.

PLEASE NOTE: We have been informed by the CBP that they will NOT accept the following forms of ID:

1. Notarized Photo Copy of a Birth Certificate
2. Notarized Photo Copy of a Passport
3. Record of Live Birth from a Hospital / Hospital Birth Certificate
4. World Passport
5. Social Security Card
6. Voter Registration Card
7. Baptismal Certificate

These documents are NOT WHTI compliant documents, therefore, are NOT acceptable proof of citizenship.

For more information or to obtain a passport application, visit www.travel.state.gov.

U.S. ALIEN RESIDENTS & NON-U.S. CITIZENS

U.S. Alien Residents

Alien Registration Card (Green Card)

U.S. Alien Residents require a valid Alien Resident Card and, in some cases, a passport (depending on itinerary). Guests must check with their consulate or appropriate government authority to determine if their nationality requires they also bring a passport along with their Alien Resident Card.

U.S. lawful permanent residents will continue to be able to use their Alien Registration Card issued by the Department of Homeland Security or other valid evidence of permanent residence status to apply for entry to United States.

Card renewal is an important matter. ARC holders (United States permanent residents) with expired cards may be considered “out of status” and may be denied entry/reentry into the United States. If your ARC was issued over 10 years ago, you should check the expiration date printed on the front of the card. If your card is expired, or it is about to expire, you should renew your card before you sail.

If you are holding an old edition ARC WITHOUT an expiration date, you will not be detained from entering the United States, but U.S. Customs and Border Protection highly suggests that you apply for a new card before you sail.

For additional information, visit:

www.uscis.gov/green-card/after-green-card-granted/renew-green-card

Other Non-U.S. Citizens

All guests of nationalities other than United States must have a valid passport for six months beyond the period of their intended stay in the United States along with any and all valid visas (if applicable). Please see below additional information regarding the Visa Waiver Program and Six Months Passport Validity Rule excepted countries.

Non-U.S. citizens require a valid machine-readable passport and a valid, unexpired U.S. Multiple Re-entry Visa, if applicable. Guests are advised to check with their consulate, or appropriate government authority to determine the necessary documents.

Non-U.S. citizens that are eligible to apply for admission under the Visa Waiver Pilot Program must still have a valid unexpired passport. U.S. State Department regulations require all guests traveling from visa-waiver countries be in possession of a machine-readable passport that includes a biometric identifier – e.g., embedded digital photograph. Otherwise, guests will be required to obtain a U.S. Multiple Re-entry Visa. Guests without proper identification may be refused boarding or entry into the United States.

On occasion, non-U.S. citizens and U.S. Alien Residents may be asked to surrender their passport and/or Alien Resident Card at time of embarkation. These documents will be returned upon completion of the Immigration inspection at the time of debarkation.

Citizens traveling under the Visa Waiver Program:

All eligible international travelers who wish to travel to the United States under the Visa Waiver Program must apply for authorization.

For additional details about ESTA and/or the Visa Waiver Program please visit:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/tourism-visit/visa-waiver-program.html>

For more information, to see if your country qualifies for the Visa Waiver program, and to apply for a travel authorization, see ESTA.

All guests must present the required documentation at embarkation. Guests without the required documentation will be denied boarding and no refund will be issued. Please understand that Royal Caribbean will strictly enforce this requirement to be in compliance with this important U.S. Government mandate.

Family Legal Documents: Adults who are not the parent or Legal Guardian of any minor child traveling with them are required to present the child's valid passport and visa (if required) or the child's birth certificate (original or certified copy) and an original notarized letter signed by at least one of the child's parents. The notarized letter from the child's parent must authorize the traveling adult to take the child on the specific cruise and must authorize the traveling adult to supervise the child and permit any medical treatment that must be administered to the child. If a non-parent adult is a Legal Guardian, the adult must present a certified certificate of Guardianship with respect to the child.

NON-US CITIZENS

You will need a valid passport and, in some cases, a visa. If you live in the U.S., you will also need the original copy of your Alien Registration Card (ARC or "Green Card") and any other documentation the countries on your itinerary require due to your alien status.

Citizens from the Visa Waiver Program countries will require a machine-readable passport valid for the duration of their voyage.

A machine-readable passport has a code like this on the bottom of the picture page:

P<<<<<<<<1234567890M1234567890M1234567890<1234567890

Cruise To The Edge and the other Released Parties (as herein defined) assume no responsibility for advising you of immigration requirements. Non-U.S. citizens, including resident aliens, must contact the appropriate consulates, embassies and/or immigration office(s) to inquire about necessary documentation for the Cruise's ports of call.

Your name, as listed on your travel documents, must exactly match your name as listed on your Cruise documents.

INOCULATION & HEALTH

All guests must ensure that they are medically and physically fit for travel. The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO) provide guidelines as to which vaccinations are required in each country. In many cases, inoculations are recommended but in some circumstances they are required. We recommend that you check with your healthcare professional or a Travel Medicine Specialist certified by the WHO for guidance. Other informational resources can be accessed at the Center for Disease Control and Prevention's Traveler's Health website or toll-free at 1-877-FYI-TRIP, and the World Health Organization website.

In addition, OTB and ROYAL CARIBBEAN reserve the right to refuse passage, to disembark or to confine to a stateroom any passenger whose physical or mental condition or behavior they consider, in OTB and/or Royal Caribbean's sole discretion, to constitute a risk to the person's own well-being or the well-being of any other person, and such person waives all claims relating to such actions by OTB and/or ROYAL CARIBBEAN. OTB and ROYAL CARIBBEAN shall have full discretion and unilateral rights to make any such decisions. The Released Parties shall have no liability to any such person or any third party for damages or claims arising out of any such decisions described in this paragraph. Any costs resulting from OTB and/or Royal Caribbean's decision, including, without limitation, costs of lodging and transportation, shall be the responsibility solely of the passenger.

PASSENGER DUTY

Passenger, or if a minor, his or her parent or guardian, shall be liable to, and shall reimburse ROYAL CARIBBEAN, OTB, and the other Released Parties for, any damage to the Released Parties' property, the Vessel, the Transport or any property of ROYAL CARIBBEAN or OTB, or claims or losses suffered by or made against ROYAL CARIBBEAN and/or OTB, caused directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by any willful or negligent act or omission on the part of the Passenger; and Passenger, or if a minor, his or her parent or guardian, shall further indemnify the ROYAL CARIBBEAN, OTB, and the other Released Parties and each and all of their agents and servants against all liability which the Released Parties may incur towards any person or company or government for any personal injury, death or damage to property caused directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by any willful or negligent act or omission on the part of Passenger.

In such instance, Passenger shall cooperate with OTB in any investigation of the Incident that OTB may conduct, in OTB's discretion. Passenger acknowledges that a failure to report any Incident to OTB during the Cruise will hinder and possibly prevent OTB's ability to investigate such Incident, and in the event of such failure to timely report, OTB and ROYAL CARIBBEAN shall have no liability or responsibility to Passenger or others arising out of the Incident.

PASSENGER CONDUCT

During the Cruise, Passenger shall abide by and conduct him/herself in accordance with all rules, regulations and directions of OTB and/or ROYAL CARIBBEAN (the "Rules"), including the Rules set forth in these Terms & Conditions and the Rules of which Passenger is made aware during the Cruise. Passenger acknowledges that there may be security personnel present at performances to enforce the Rules and to protect the performers and the enjoyment of the performances by the audience. Passenger agrees to immediately comply with the requests of security personnel.

In the event of a violation of the Rules or these Terms & Conditions by Passenger during a performance, Passenger acknowledges that security personnel will act quickly to protect the artists and other passengers, and to prevent Passenger from disrupting the performance or creating safety issues for others, and Passenger hereby releases OTB and/or ROYAL CARIBBEAN from any injuries, claims or losses suffered by Passenger as a result of the actions of security or other personnel (including physical acts) in the event of Passenger's violation of these Rules or Terms & Conditions.

Passenger shall not put any person in danger for their safety or well being, or engage in a fight or other altercation with any person, onboard the Cruise.

In the event of a disruption of a performance by Passenger in violation of the Rules, or a fight in which Passenger is a participant, On the Blue and/or ROYAL CARIBBEAN shall have the right, in its discretion, to remove Passenger from the performance, to bar Passenger from future performances during the Cruise, to remove Passenger from the Cruise at any port (at Passenger's sole expense), and/or to ban Passenger from attending any future ROYAL CARIBBEAN or OTB cruises (including a cruise by any companies affiliated with ROYAL CARIBBEAN or On the Blue). In the event of any other violation of the Rules by Passenger, OTB and/or ROYAL CARIBBEAN shall have the right, in their discretion, to remove Passenger from the Cruise at any port (at Passenger's sole expense) and/or to ban Passenger from attending any future ROYAL CARIBBEAN or OTB cruises (including a cruise by any companies affiliated with ROYAL CARIBBEAN or OTB).

ZERO TOLERANCE DRUG POLICY

On the Blue has a zero tolerance policy regarding the use, possession, purchase or distribution of illegal controlled substances. Any violation of this policy will result in disembarkation from the vessel as well as the individuals being turned over to the local law enforcement officials for appropriate legal action, in On the Blue's discretion. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

By booking the Cruise, you (the passenger) hereby release and hold harmless the Released Parties, from and against any claim or cause of action arising out of or in connection with your travel on and participation in the Cruise, including, but not limited to: (1) injury, death or delay of passengers, or loss, damage or delay of or to passengers' baggage or other property, which may be caused, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from participation in the Cruise, including, without limitation, passenger's use of or participation in any shore excursion, on board concession or athletic or recreational activity, unless such injury, etc. is caused by the gross negligence or intentional acts of Released Parties; (2) your request for or selection of a roommate for the Cruise or the assignment of a roommate to you if no request is made by you; (3) emotional distress, mental suffering or anguish or psychological injury of any kind under any circumstances (except when such damages were caused by the Released Parties' negligence and resulted from the same passenger's sustaining actual physical injury, or having been at risk of actual physical injury, or when such damages are held to have been intentionally inflicted by the Released Parties); (4) any change in scheduled Cruise events and/or celebrity appearances; (5) violation of the Rules by you; or (6) if ROYAL CARIBBEAN exercises its contractual rights (see below). In the event that a court of competent jurisdiction holds any of the foregoing to be unenforceable, then the Released Parties' liability shall be limited to the maximum extent permitted by law. In addition, in such case:

- Claims for Personal Injury, Illness or Death: – Subject to these Terms & Conditions, the Released Parties shall not be liable for any claims whatsoever for the personal injury, illness or death of a passenger, unless the passenger has first notified the OTB hospitality desk of such injury or illness during the Cruise if the injury or illness first occurred during the Cruise (so that OTB may begin to gather information about such injury or illness while the Cruise is still going on), and full particulars in writing are given to OTB within 90 days after the date of the injury, event, illness or death giving rise to the claim. Suit to recover on any such claim shall not be maintainable unless filed within one (1) year after the date of the injury, event, illness or death. You (the passenger) expressly waive all other potentially applicable state or federal limitations periods.

Suit to recover on any claim whatsoever other than for personal injury, illness or death shall not be maintainable unless filed within one year after the date the passenger is landed from the Cruise or the Cruise is abandoned. You (the passenger) expressly waive all other potentially applicable state or federal limitations periods.

THE EXCLUSIONS OR LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY OF THE RELEASED PARTIES SET FORTH IN THE PROVISIONS OF THIS CONTRACT SHALL ALSO APPLY TO AND BE FOR THE BENEFIT OF AGENTS, INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS, CONCESSIONAIRES AND SUPPLIERS OF THE RELEASED PARTIES, TOGETHER WITH THE EMPLOYEES AND SERVANTS OF EACH OF THE FOREGOING. WITHOUT LIMITING THE PRECEDING SENTENCE, IN NO EVENT WILL THE RELEASED PARTIES OR ROYAL CARIBBEAN BE LIABLE TO PASSENGER FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

CANCELLATION BY OTB AND/OR ROYAL CARIBBEAN

In the event of strike, lockouts, riots or stoppage of labor from whatever causes, or for any other reason whatsoever beyond the control of OTB or ROYAL CARIBBEAN, OTB and/or ROYAL CARIBBEAN in its sole discretion may cancel, advance, or postpone any scheduled sailing or call at any port and may (but is not obligated to) substitute another vessel, and neither ROYAL CARIBBEAN nor OTB shall be liable for any loss whatsoever to passengers by reason of such cancellation, advancement, postponement, or substitution. If the Cruise is completely cancelled, OTB shall return to you your cabin fare, cruise line transfers and related taxes and fees, or, if the Cruise is partially cancelled, a proportionate part thereof. Under such circumstances, OTB and the Released Parties shall have no further liability for damages or compensation of any kind. Please note that the availability of any refund for travel insurance and/or other travel products (airfare, hotel, car rental), even if purchased in conjunction with the Cruise, will be determined in accordance with the applicable cancellation policies for such other products or services and shall not be the responsibility or obligation of OTB or ROYAL CARIBBEAN.

ARTIST CANCELLATION, ILLNESS, FAILURE TO APPEAR OR PERFORM

OTB has entered into an agreement with each performing artist or band on the Cruise, as applicable, under which the artist or band is to be present on board the Cruise and appear and perform in accordance with terms specified therein. However, neither OTB nor ROYAL CARIBBEAN shall be liable or responsible in any way to Passengers or others for the failure of any artist or musician (including an artist or musician who is a member of a band), to appear on board or to perform under artist's (or the band of which artist is a member) agreement with OTB. Further, neither OTB nor ROYAL CARIBBEAN shall be liable or responsible for any loss, damage, cost, or expense of any kind (including, but not limited to, actual damages, consequential damages, or travel-related expenses or damages) to any Passenger or any other person or entity (i) in the event that such performance or appearance does not occur because of the failure of any artist or musician to appear on board or to perform pursuant to such artist, band, or musician's agreement with OTB, (ii) because such appearance or performance by an artist, musician or band is prevented or caused by or results directly or indirectly from any act of God, war, fire, collision, directions of underwriters, arrest, order or restraint by any government agency or official acting under color of authority, acts of terrorism, labor disturbances or disputes, civil commotion, weather conditions and considerations of the safety of the vessel (for which the Master shall be the sole judge), breakdowns of or damage to the vessel's hull or machinery, requisition of the vessel by governmental authority, illness or death of artist, illness or death of a family member of artist, or any other cause or circumstance beyond OTB's reasonable control, or (iii) artist's appearing on board but being unable or unwilling to fulfill all of artist's responsibilities required under its agreement (or the agreement of the band of which artist is a member) with OTB. In the event of any failure of contracted artists (including an artist who is a member of a band that has contracted with OTB) to perform during the cruise, OTB, in its sole discretion, may (but shall have no obligation to) engage a replacement artist, band, or artists, schedule additional performances by other artists appearing on board, or may change, postpone or terminate all or any part of the Cruise or the entertainment program or change the program or itinerary.
